https://canadasteelcorp.com/job/machinist-supervisor/

Machinist Supervisor

Hiring organization
Canada Steel Corporation

Employment Type
Full-time

Industry
Steel Industry

Job Location
125 Easton Road, N3P1J4, Brantford, Ontario, Canada

Working Hours
8 hours

Base Salary
$ 31.79 - $ 38.46

Date posted
June 21, 2026

Description

3 years or more of supervisory experience in a steel processing, Steel fabrication, or manufacturing environment.

Responsibilities

- Steel Slitting Line Operations
- Steel Blanking Line Operations
- Steel Cut-to-Length Line Operations
- Steel Plate Shearing Operations
- Steel Bending and Press Brake Operations
- Roll Forming Operation (Light gauge and Heavy gauge Machinery)
- Supervise and coordinate the activities of machinists, machine operators, and production personnel.
- Plan, organize, and schedule daily production activities to meet customer delivery requirements.
- Monitor and oversee the operation of slitting lines, metal blanking lines, cut-to-length lines, shearing machines, and bending press equipment.
- Ensure production processes comply with company quality standards and customer specifications.
- Review production orders, and work instructions to ensure accurate processing of steel products.
- Train, mentor, and evaluate machine operators, production staff and Packaging staff
- Assign work duties and monitor employees performance to maximize productivity and efficiency.
- Inspect finished products to verify dimensions, tolerances, and overall quality.
- Troubleshoot machine operational issues and coordinate repairs with maintenance personnel.
- Ensure proper machine setup, tool changes, and production adjustments are completed efficiently.
- Maintain accurate production records, machine logs, quality reports, and employees attendance records.
- Implement and enforce workplace health and safety policies and procedures.
- Conduct regular safety meetings and ensure compliance with occupational health and safety regulations.
- Investigate production delays, quality concerns, and equipment malfunctions and implement corrective actions.
- Coordinate workflow between production, shipping, receiving, and quality control departments.
- Assist management in developing production schedules and improving operational efficiency.
- Recommend process improvements to reduce waste, improve quality, and increase productivity.
- Ensure proper housekeeping and organization of production areas.

Canada Steel Corporation
https://canadasteelcorp.com